

4.2     Tournaments, Contests and Rodeos.

4.2.1 It shall be unlawful to promote or hold on the waters of the Reservoir any fishing tournament, contest, rodeo or other fishing event unless the sponsor first, no later than fourteen (14) calendar days prior to the event: (i) registers the event with the General Manager of the District on forms prescribed for such purpose (including name of sponsor, fees payable to sponsor and others, copies of promotional material, date and times of event, areas of Reservoir involved, roster of participants to the extent known and other relevant information), (ii) pays an application review fee of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00), and (iii) makes an advance payment of ten percent (10%) of the participation fee prescribed in section 4.2.2 below. The application fee is nonrefundable; however the fee will be applied to the participation fee and will satisfy the participation fee for up to twenty (20) boats.

4.2.2 Additionally, it shall be unlawful to promote or hold on the waters of the Reservoir any fishing tournament, contest, rodeo or other fishing event without first securing written authorization therefor from the General Manager of the District, payment of a participation fee to the District in the amount of five dollars ($5.00) for each boat involved in the event and providing a satisfactory certificate of public liability insurance. The sponsor shall provide the District with a complete roster of all participants and boats actually involved in the event, together with any additional participation fees due, if any, within seven (7) calendar days after the event. No refund of the participation fee will be made unless the entire event is cancelled. Authorization is discretionary.

4.2.3 Bona fide local civic, charitable, cultural and governmental organizations not operated for profit for federal income tax purposes who verify in writing to the District that one hundred percent of the funds payable from participants, sponsors and others in the event will be paid to the organization and used in sponsoring the event and in furthering the tax exempt purposes of the organization, are exempt from payment of the permit fee but are subject to all other provisions of this section.

4.2.4 Fishing tournaments, contests, rodeos and other fishing events may be scheduled to encompass any weekend of the month unless the Board of Directors has declared certain weekends closed to such events for public health, safety or welfare as designated in the minutes of the Board from time to time. No event will be scheduled more than one (1) year in advance, and no more than three (3) events per sponsor will be scheduled in any one calendar month.

4.2.5 Each violation of this regulation shall constitute a misdemeanor and shall be punishable by a fine of not more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00).

4.2 Tournaments, Contests and Rodeos.

4.2.1 It shall be unlawful to promote or hold on the waters of the Reservoir any fishing tournament, contest, rodeo or other fishing event ~~without first registering unless the sponsor first, no later than fourteen (14) calendar days prior to the event:~~ (i) registers the event with the General Manager of the District on forms prescribed for such purpose (including name of sponsor, fees payable to sponsor and others, copies of promotional material, date and times of event, areas of Reservoir involved, roster of participants to the extent known and other relevant information), (ii) pays an application review fee of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00), and (iii) makes an advance payment of ten percent (10%) of the participation fee prescribed in section 4.2.2 below. The application fee is nonrefundable; however the fee will be applied to the participation fee and will satisfy the participation fee for up to twenty (20) boats.

4.2.2 Additionally, it shall be unlawful to promote or hold on the waters of the Reservoir any fishing tournament, contest, rodeo or other fishing event ~~involving fifty (50) or more boats without first securing written authorization therefor from the General Manager of the District, payment of a participation fee to the District in the amount of four five dollars ($4.005.00) for each boat involved in the tournament event and providing a satisfactory certificate of public liability insurance. The sponsor shall provide the District with a complete roster of all participants and boats actually involved in the event, together with any additional participation fees due, if any, within seven (7) calendar days after the event. No refund of the participation fee will be made unless the entire event is cancelled. Authorization is discretionary.~~

~~4.2.3 For events involving fifty or more boats, written application and payment shall be received by the General Manager of the District no later than sixty days in advance of the event. For events involving fewer than fifty boats, written application shall be received by the General Manager of the District no later than thirty days in advance of the event. No event will be scheduled until receipt by the District of the complete written application and, if applicable, payment of the permit fee and delivery of certificate of insurance. Events will not be scheduled more than one (1) year in advance.~~

4.2.3 Bona fide local civic, charitable, cultural and governmental organizations not operated for profit for federal income tax purposes who verify in writing to the District that one hundred percent of the funds payable from participants, sponsors and others in the event will be paid to the organization and used in sponsoring the event and in furthering the tax exempt purposes of the organization, are exempt from payment of the permit fee but are subject to all other provisions of this section.

4.2.4 Fishing tournaments, contests, rodeos and other fishing events ~~shall~~may be scheduled to encompass any weekend of the month unless the Board of Directors has declared certain weekends closed to such events for public health, safety or welfare as designated in the minutes of the Board from time to time. No event will be scheduled more than one (1) year in advance, and no more than three (3) events per sponsor will be scheduled in any one calendar month.

4.2.5 Each violation of this regulation shall constitute a misdemeanor and shall be punishable by a fine of not more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00).